Issue 39 Term 4 Week 10

Thursday 14th December 2017

DEAR PARENTS/CARERS

Last night 13th December saw our annual presentation night held at the Coopernook School of Arts Hall. It was a great night which showcased what our talented students achieved during 2017. Certainly all those positive Facebook comments afterwards were greatly appreciated

Congratulations to all students on their excellent behaviour on what proved to be a hot and sweaty night. You did your school proud on a long under trying circumstances. Well done too, to all our fantastic award winners whether for sporting, social or academic achievement, and also next year's parliamentary team. I know you will do a fabulous job. I must also mention the wonderful compering job done by Bridie Wallace and Patrick Gillogly on the night.

I'd also like to remind you that Friday 15th December is our final assembly of the year beginning at 2pm sharp. There are some special awards to hand out and also a bit of light entertainment. And, of course, we look forward to saying our sad farewells to our outgoing Year 6 students and some families with long-standing ties to our school.

As mentioned last night, Mrs Gilchrist tells me that there are some very exciting plans for 2018 and she looks forward to sharing them with you in Term 1 next year. We wish her a speedy recovery and look forward to her return.

Finally, on behalf of the staff, I wish you all a merry Christmas and trust you can join us at the Carols by Candlelight celebration this Saturday night at the park where the Coopernook students will be performing.
