Issue 9 Term 1 Week 11

Thursday 9th April, 2020

Principals Message

At this stage, school will be running the same as now in Term 2. The only difference, is that I will also be working from home. You can still reach me via email, Google Classroom or on my school phone. If anything changes, we will be in contact.

Over the two week break, we will be moving the return tubs and trays inside. If you have any late returns, we ask that you hold onto them until the start of next term.

From all of the staff at C.P.S, we wish you all a happy Easter! Stay safe these holidays.

Acting Principal,
Amber Ryan

Tanka Poem

A swallow flew by
It let out a sharp, shrill sound
A dog barked below
At the bird it yapped and yapped It's brown fur swayed in the wind

By Kit Hardy

Concrete Poem

and you can move flapping quite intelligent! so big all strong a very intelligent grey! oversized trunk flapping, brilliantly gentle ever so mountainous body fluttering, brilliantly ever so generous tree trunk flopping, brilliantly important torso, southern stages, floppy auricles ever so gargantuan torso fluttering, brilliantly bad trunk, intermediate stages, floppy ears in its bragging trunk flapping, brilliantly a extended proboscis flap, brilliantly biggest body flapping, brilliantly large trunk, grey stages, lax ears a bad trunk, old pegs, lax pinnae . great body, old legs, lax ears a mammoth boot flap, brilliantly a blue, big, prominent all large a very intelligent all large ! all gentle very grey decidedly big so gentle floppy! love quite big large ears very gentle grey! state alive heart strong mind move soul quite grey! legs large strong so big quite trunk legs alive large strong

PM eCollection

All of Mrs Stewarts students and some of Mrs Ryan's have been signed up to this new program. We have emailed out the login details and encourage you all to have a look at this resource. It will allow students greater access to reading material at their level.

You can access the program online or download the app to your iPad or phone. There may be a delay in loading, due to the high demand on Internet at the moment. If this happens, try again at another time.
