It SURE IS SHOREBIRD SEASON!

Eden Darnell

Silas Darnell is the Beach Warden in Harrington and Old Bar and he has sighted the first nests for spring! Nests were found on Friday the 27th of August and Monday the 30th of August 2021. They laid their nests at Farquhar Inlet and Harrington, NSW, Australia.

The Pied Oystercatchers lay eggs on the beaches. They sit on their nests for 28 days. The nests are at risk from dogs, people and four wheel drives and other birds. It is important to stay out of fenced areas
